Verger for the Parish Church of Louth St James

St James's Church in Louth is seeking to appoint a Verger to replace one of our current verger's who is retiring.

Reporting to the Rector and the Churchwardens, the Verger will be responsible for opening the church and preparing it for services and other events. In addition the verger will be required to carry out routine cleaning and minor maintenance of the church and its precincts. The post involves up to 19 hours per week (shared between two people, and depending on the season) for regular duties plus further occasional time for additional work, which is paid for separately.

If you feel you have the necessary skills and experience for this position, please visit our website at www.teamparishoflouth.org.uk or write to The Rectory, 49 Westgate, Louth LN11 9YE or e-mail nick.brown@teamparishoflouth.org.uk for more details.
